

Group Paliria, the No 1 dolma producer internationally and the largest Greek company producing and exporting ready meals, is looking to recruit for its premises in Politika Evia:

Quality Control Analyst

Main responsibilities

- Inspecting raw and packaging materials
- Testing and recording measurements of various product attributes at all production stages.
- Comparing these measurements to a pre-defined standard specification
- Monitoring production practices to ensure compliance with GMP-GHP standards
- Providing assistance to production staff where necessary and monitoring implementation, regarding the Quality Control procedures
- Participating in food tasting of products in order to monitor the tests, so as to provide enhancement to quality parameters
- Compiling test measurements and outcomes into reports
- Participating in the probe of any quality aberration or any customer complaint and provide corrective actions

Candidate's profile

- University degree in Food Technology or Agriculture
- At least two years of working experience in a similar role
- Very good knowledge of English language and familiarity with writing using Food Technology terminology.
- PC literacy and good knowledge of MS Office with MS Office
- Close attention to detail
- Strong interpersonal & communication skills
- Self-driven, proactive and seeks continuous improvement
- Good organizational skills with ability to multi-task and set priorities
- Team spirit
- Shift work flexibility

The company offers

- Competitive remuneration package
- Real opportunities for career development in a rapidly growing environment
- Pleasant and modern working environment
- Company bus transportation

Candidates are invited to send their CVs to the following address: cv@paliria.com